

The “ADOPT A NURSE” Membership of COINN Initiative

COINN is committed to facilitating a global community of nurses working with neonates to share knowledge and experiences to improve outcomes for mothers and babies. At the 2016 COINN international conference, the “Adopt a Nurse” initiative was launched. This initiative supports nurses working with neonates in resource-limited settings to become a member of COINN.

Nurses working within these settings are encouraged to apply for the “Adopt A Nurse” membership of COINN initiative by completing the following information.

Title:

First Name:

Family Name:

Email:

Place of Work:

Place of Work Address:

Conditions:

- The membership support is open to nurses who work in neonatal settings in low and middle income countries as defined by the World Bank list.
- The adopt a nurse funding is received from generous donations from COINN members and COINN supporters and therefore the total funding for this initiative is dependent on these donations.
- The allocation of membership will be awarded on receiving this application, if funds available.
- Membership is for 1 year and then applicants will need to reapply for membership support if they are unable to pay the $1 USD membership fee.
